Questions and follow up:

- Why was the spider so tired at the end of the day?
- How had the spider been successful?
- Did the spider give up at any time?
- Where do you think this story is set? (Perhaps the animals will give you a clue)
- Could you make up your own story about a very lazy spider? What will happen?
- Can you have a hunt for any spiders or spider webs in your garden or out and about?
