

Dear Parents/ Carers

We will be celebrating Kents Hill School World Book Day on Friday 3rd March. We will spend the day completing a variety of exciting activities linked to particular book themes, book characters, role play & story telling.

Friday 3rd March – Kents Hill School Book Day

- Come to school dressed up as your favourite book character.
- We are sure that you are keen to see everyone's snazzy outfits so we have decided to have a Book Day parade at 9.00am. Please drop your child off at normal time, wait on the playground and the parade will begin after registration.*
- One of our school values is "creativity" Therefore prizes will be awarded for the most original, creative and homemade outfit. Time to get your thinking caps on!!
- Bring in your favourite story book and be prepared to talk to about it to other children in your class.
- Please remember that your children must still wear closed toe shoes for safety reasons.

Your child will also come home on Book Day with a £1 book voucher which can be used in participating stores.

For more information about how you can celebrate World Book Day at home with your child please follow the link below for a range of fun ideas to get you all excited about books!

* Please note that the parade is weather dependent. We are unable to hold it indoors due to fire regulations. If it is raining on the day and has to be cancelled, we will send an email via SchoolComs on the morning of Friday 3rd.

Celebrate stories. Love reading.
